

Awesome Spring Concert

Featuring:

Buddy Greene of Nashville, TN

Buddy is on almost all the Gaither Homecoming Videos, where he is the featured grand master of the HARMONICA! You haven't lived until you've heard Buddy do "The William Tell Overture," on the harmonica! He is also an awesome singer, guitar player and songwriter. He wrote the music to "Mary, Did You Know?" which went gold for Kenny Rogers. Buddy is a fabulous musician with a marvelous message.

Also:

The Watchmen Quartet

One of Canada's finest and oldest gospel quartets, singing since 1968! They have won most of the major Canadian Gospel Music Association awards for top group, top musician, top album, best vocalist, etc. over the years. For 39 years they have been thrilling audiences with their four-part harmony and their stories behind the songs they sing. They have recorded in excess of 20 projects as a group and individually.

Also: Dave RANDALL

When the National Quartet Convention in Louisville Kentucky held it's favorite male vocalist contest – Dave Randall surfaced as the clear winner and when you hear him – there will be no doubt in your mind why he won this prestigious award. Currently Dave is singing lead with "The Torchmen" as well as doing his own solo performances. He is a schoolteacher, teaching music and other subjects. He and his wife Jayne live in Clarksburg, ON.

When: Sunday Evening – 7PM, April 22nd, 2007

Where: Port Elgin United Church, 840 Bruce Street, Port Elgin

Why: This fabulous concert is in support of the Grey Bruce Chaplaincy Program that provides spiritual care in all 11 Health Care facilities in Grey and Bruce Counties. You have the opportunity to support a program that meets some of the needs of people in crisis. There are so many wonderful stories of lives touched for good and for God in the midst of pain, uncertainty, and emotional stress. Please come prepared to be generous in a free will offering. Tax receipts are available.
