

Fabulous Spring concert

Featuring:

The Watchmen Quartet

One of Canada's oldest and best loved quartets. Over the years they have recorded over 20 different projects and continue to sing regularly. In June of this year in celebration of their 40th Anniversary together as a group, they will host 3 days at the Kitchener Auditorium with Dr. Ravi Zacharias and singer, Steve Green. They anticipate an audience of 21,000 over the three nights! The Gospel Music Association has awarded them: Best Male Quartet; Best Recording; Best Instrumentalist; Best Lead singer and many more. They have opened for the Oak Ridge Boys on several occasions and have appeared on Huntley Street as well as CBC television. Don't miss this great concert!
